

Leader's Guide

Week of June 4

Leader Check-In

Hey leaders!

This is a little break from the Acts fun we've been having! Please enjoy reading a Psalm for a change and feel free to have a shorter discussion than usual – you've earned it! It's important this week to just have a lot of time to reflect on the one main idea (given below) and let people stew on that and come up with their own applications.

Again – not lots of content here, just LOTS of implications for our lives. I hope this week's study blesses you!

Blessed to be a blessing,

Cameron

The Big Idea

God bless us, so that others may be drawn to you and be saved!

Getting Started

1. Is it okay to pray for success or wealth?
 2. Is it ever not okay to? Under what circumstances?
-

Digging In

1. Read Psalm 67 at least three times. Seriously. Out loud. In your head. Spend some time quietly reflecting on the Psalm.
2. If God chooses to bless us, why does he bless us?
Leader's Note: This is one of the dominant themes of the Bible, Old and New Testaments: we are blessed to be a blessing! You can cross reference this with Genesis 12, where this idea starts being a main emphasis in the Bible.
3. What should our response to God's blessing be?
Leader's Note: Do whatever we can to bless others and make sure they know that it's because of our relationship with God through Christ that we do those things! Always make it known WHY you are doing what you are doing.

Spring 2017

Looking Around

1. Name some ways you have been blessed. Try to think outside the box of what you might usually list.
 2. How can you bless others given what you've said above? Again – think outside the box of what you usually might say. How can you bless other Christians? How can you bless non-Christians in ways that make God known among all people?
Leader's Note: We're tempted here to think only of money. But really push your group to think in terms of talents, time, relationships, connections, capacities, skills, knowledge, education, etc., etc., etc.
-

Pray

Pray that God will bless you, and give you the courage and Spirit to share that blessing with others that he might be known and all might be saved.